MIAMI MARLINS ANNOUNCE ADDITIONS TO EXECUTIVE LEADERSHIP TEAM

Anthony Favata - Vice President, Operations and Events

Christian Lowe - Vice President, Analytics and Strategy

Mike Mullane - Vice President, Finance and Accounting

MIAMI – The Miami Marlins today announced four additions to the executive leadership team, as appointed by Marlins President of Business Operations Caroline O'Connor: Anthony Favata – Vice President, Operations and Events; Christian Lowe – Vice President, Analytics and Strategy; and Mike Mullane – Vice President, Finance and Accounting.

“The additions of Anthony, Christian, and Mike to our executive team will strengthen and expand our organization’s leadership,” said Ms. O’Connor. “These talented individuals bring a wealth of expertise and knowledge in their respective fields. We look forward to their proven leadership qualities playing pivotal roles in the continued growth of our organization as we further establish loanDepot park as a year-round entertainment destination, enhance our strategic fan engagement initiatives, and grow the number of people that come out and support Marlins baseball each year.”

In the role of Vice President of Operations and Events, Mr. Favata will oversee gameday and event operational management and event booking at loanDepot park, as well as guest services, parking and transportation, concessions, and collaboration with third-party operational partners. Mr. Favata, who is a graduate of Western High School in Davie, Fla. and the University of Florida, originally joined the Marlins organization in 2014 as an intern in the Ballpark Operations department.

Mr. Lowe enters his sixth season with the Marlins organization, having joined the organization in 2017 as Director of Corporate Strategy and Analytics. As a specialist in advanced analytics, data mining, and strategic insights, the Marlins have made significant advancements in fan programs, digital marketing and business analytics under Mr. Lowe's direction. His strategic ventures have established the Marlins as industry leaders in fan programs with Home Run Rewards and Club 305 presented by Sedano's, while also developing creative single-game options for fans to engage with the Marlins.

As Vice President of Finance and Accounting, Mr. Mullane oversees the day-to-day financial operations of the Marlins, including financial reporting and analysis, budgeting, and capital planning and asset management. With more than 10 years as a finance and accounting professional, Mr. Mullane is in his second stint with the Marlins organization, beginning his career as an intern in the Finance department with the Marlins in 2011 and recently serving as Senior Director of Finance and Accounting the past two years. The Miami-native is a graduate of Miami Palmetto Senior High School, the University of Miami, and the University of Florida where he received his MBA.
